PREFACE

Reading is the cornerstone of learning, yet it remains one of the most pressing challenges in education today. In response, the Division of Bukidnon proudly introduces Bukidnon's Unified Literacy and Intervention Gateway (BULIG) — a transformative innovation designed to improve learners' reading ability and empower every child to succeed.

BULIG is more than a program; it is a unified movement for literacy, built on collaboration, evidence-based strategies, and a deep commitment to equity in education. This initiative bridges gaps in reading proficiency by providing targeted interventions, innovative approaches, and sustainable support systems that cater to the diverse needs of learners across the division.

Anchored on this vision, the Division of Bukidnon integrates the ARAL Program (Academic Recovery and Accessible Learning), a national initiative focused on learning recovery and remediation. ARAL provides structured and learner-centered interventions for those struggling with foundational skills in reading and numeracy. By complementing BULIG's mission, ARAL strengthens the division's comprehensive approach to literacy, ensuring that learners overcome difficulties and gain the confidence to succeed academically. Together, these programs create a powerful synergy that accelerates learning recovery and builds a strong foundation for lifelong learning.

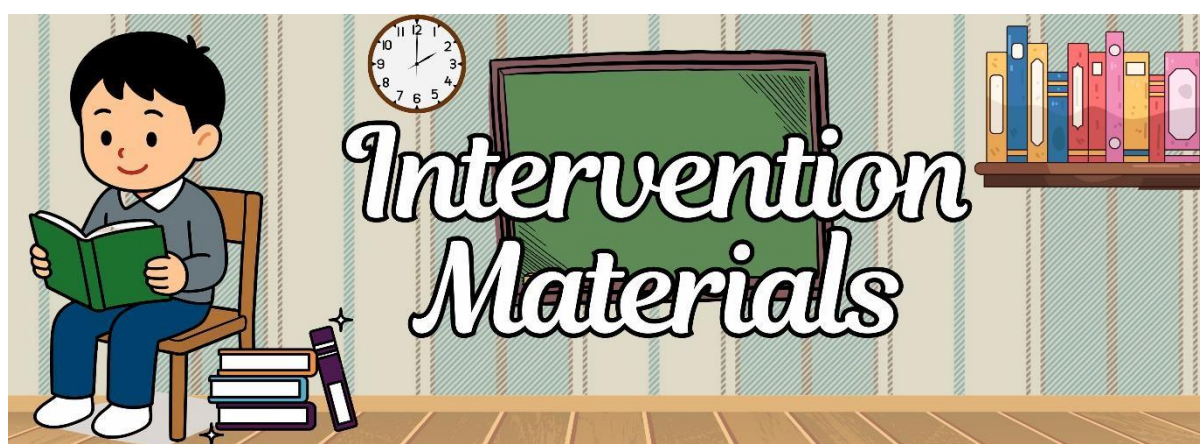

Through BULIG, we envision classrooms where every learner reads with confidence, comprehends with clarity, and learns with purpose. This gateway opens opportunities for lifelong learning, ensuring that no child is left behind in the journey toward academic excellence and personal growth.

Together, let us make literacy not just a goal, but a reality for all.

THINK FOR ME!

Directions: Identify the structure of news stories indicated in each example below. Write the answer on the blank.

1. They say a child's smile is the sweetest thing in the world. It could be a source of warmth and joy not only to the child but those blessed with its presence.

For children with cleft deformities, however, this proves to be different as they are sometimes teased and bullied for their smiles.

But through courage and kindness, these children are being given hope.

Over a hundred children with cleft lips and palates in Tacloban City were given the gift of a beautiful smile this November.

From Nov. 11 to 16, children and young adults with cleft lips, cleft palates and other facial deformities were given free and safe surgery by a team of medical volunteers from the civic group Operation Smile.

The mission was held at the Eastern Visayas Regional Medical Center in Tacloban City. (feature)

2. The Department of Health (DOH) Region 2 has opened a 51-bed capacity Community Isolation Unit (CIU) facility at the Regional Government Center, this city. Dr. Rio Magpantay, regional director, said the building was intended for the Regional Blood Center, however, since it is not yet operational, the rooms were converted into isolation units for the meantime.

The two-storey facility is equipped with isolation rooms provided with sanitary and food supplies, with comfort rooms and medical staff who will man the CIU on a 24/7 basis.

3. Robots will destroy 85 million jobs at mid-sized to large businesses over the next five years as the COVID-19 pandemic accelerates changes in the workplace likely to exaggerate inequalities, a World Economic Forum (WEF) study has found.

4. The situation is harrowing enough. But it becomes profoundly horrifying when news about millions of Filipinos enduring daily hunger pangs comes on the heels of a staggering revelation in a recent Senate hearing: that the Department of Social Welfare and Development still has in its office some P10 billion that was supposed to aid four million poor Filipinos under the social amelioration program (SAP), but that has remained undistributed.

5. The Department of Education has allowed its division offices and schools to hire learning support aides (LSAs) that would help teachers and parents facilitate the schooling of students at home. Alliance of Concerned Teachers (ACT) Secretary General Raymond Basilio, however, said LSAs do not provide learning opportunities for disadvantaged learners since they have no teaching function and would simply assist teachers in class management and clerical work.

3. Virgin coconut oil can help destroy the novel coronavirus, according to Filipino researchers, following months of experiments on the product as a potential antiviral agent. "The results are very promising, as not only does it show that the VCO, by itself, can destroy the virus, but it also has a key mechanism in upregulating the immune response against COVID-19," Dr. Jaime C. Montoya, executive director of the Philippine Council for Health Research and Development (PCHRD), said in a statement. The Philippine General Hospital (PGH) is conducting a separate clinical trial for virgin coconut oil among severe patients battling with the virus.

5. MANILA, Philippines — With more people expected to head outdoors during the Christmas season amid the easing of quarantine restrictions, the Philippine National Police (PNP) yesterday said it would double the deployment of personnel in public places to thwart criminals.

The PNP is wary of a possible spike in crimes and terrorism in Metro Manila during the holidays.

“We will deploy more police personnel. That’s automatic, but we have to rationalize the deployment of our forces. When we say this, we mean that we need to secure places where police are needed,” PNP chief Gen. Camilo Cascolan told reporters.

Ang was recognized for “his visionary leadership, significant and long-term contributions to the country, and unprecedented response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

“His success in business is not only found in the Philippines but also globally. His company is instrumental in the various crucial infrastructure projects that (will) help our country not just recover but also leads us to soar even higher in terms of creating jobs, stimulating economic activities,” the board of judges said.

2. The Miami Heat refused to let their amazing postseason run end in Game 5 of the 2020 NBA Finals. Behind another superb outing from Jimmy Butler, the Heat overcame the Los Angeles Lakers, 111-108, to stay alive and extend the series to a Game 6. Butler had his second triple-double of the Finals, with 35 points, 12 rebounds, 11 assists and five steals, as the Heat came out on top after a thrilling back-and-forth encounter. Duncan Robinson added 26 points, making seven of his 13 three-pointers in the game. But Butler was the clear hero of the game for Miami, as he drew a foul against Anthony Davis with 16.8 seconds left and drained the go-ahead free throws for a 109-108 count. Before Butler's charities, Davis put the Lakers ahead with a layup of an offensive rebound, doing so despite having injured his ankle in the first quarter of the game.

3. “Ladies and gentlemen, I hereby declare Marawi City liberated from the terrorist influence that marks the beginning of rehabilitation,” President Rodrigo Duterte said in a speech before troops 148th day into the crisis.

The president declared martial law in the whole of Mindanao to neutralize the local terror group and contain violence in the region. He also suspended the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in the region.

The Armed Forces of the Philippines reported that as of October 16, 824 terrorists were killed, 827 firearms were recovered and 1,771 hostages were rescued. On the part of the government, 162 soldiers were killed and 1,000 others were wounded in action.

4. The United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) this month launched a photo exhibition which featured World Heritage marine sites including Philippines' Tubbataha Reefs Natural Park.

UNESCO's photo exhibition titled "Protecting UNESCO's Marine World Heritage through scientific research" was launched at the UNESCO headquarters in Paris, France last October 7.

The photo exhibit particularly showcased photographs taken by the Monaco Explorations during a scientific exploration in UNESCO World Heritage marine sites.

Aside from the Tubbataha Reefs Natural Park, Malpelo Fauna and Flora Sanctuary in Colombia, Rock Islands Southern Lagoon in Palau, and Lagoons of New Caledonia were also included in the list.

Tubbataha Reefs Natural Park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site located in the center of the Sulu Sea and covers the Tubbataha and Jessie Beazley Reefs. It covers 96.828 hectares including the North and South Reefs.

The natural park is home to a great diversity of marine life, including whales, dolphins, sharks, turtles, and Napoleon wrasse. The reef ecosystems support over 360 species of corals and almost 700 species of fish. The reserve likewise protects one of the few remaining colonies of breeding seabirds in the region.

5. The Department of Education (DepEd) has appealed to teachers to make some learning module exercises and activities optional to prevent students from experiencing "burnout" due to the overwhelming subject requirements they must accomplish after just one week of remote classes.

Diosdado San Antonio, DepEd undersecretary, reminded them to gauge what students should accomplish in a day and that the agency had a policy of not requiring daily homework for every subject.

"These should be discussed by school teams because they are the ones who agree how many tasks are reasonable [for students]. We do not want the students' excitement in learning converted into burnout," San Antonio said at a press briefing.

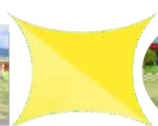

According to Jesus Mateo, DepEd undersecretary for planning, LSAs will be employed to assist teachers in lesson preparation and delivery, guide learners and households on their chosen learning delivery modalities, and monitor students' progress and achievements.
