PREFACE

Reading is the cornerstone of learning, yet it remains one of the most pressing challenges in education today. In response, the Division of Bukidnon proudly introduces Bukidnon's Unified Literacy and Intervention Gateway (BULIG) — a transformative innovation designed to improve learners' reading ability and empower every child to succeed.

BULIG is more than a program; it is a unified movement for literacy, built on collaboration, evidence-based strategies, and a deep commitment to equity in education. This initiative bridges gaps in reading proficiency by providing targeted interventions, innovative approaches, and sustainable support systems that cater to the diverse needs of learners across the division.

Anchored on this vision, the Division of Bukidnon integrates the ARAL Program (Academic Recovery and Accessible Learning), a national initiative focused on learning recovery and remediation. ARAL provides structured and learner-centered interventions for those struggling with foundational skills in reading and numeracy. By complementing BULIG's mission, ARAL strengthens the division's comprehensive approach to literacy, ensuring that learners overcome difficulties and gain the confidence to succeed academically. Together, these programs create a powerful synergy that accelerates learning recovery and builds a strong foundation for lifelong learning.

Through BULIG, we envision classrooms where every learner reads with confidence. Comprehends with clarity, and learns with purpose. This gateway opens opportunities for lifelong learning, ensuring that no child is left behind in the journey toward academic excellence and personal growth.

Together, let us make literacy not just a goal, but a reality for all.

Name: _____

LESSON 1: TALKING ABOUT ONE'S SELF AND ONE'S FAMILY

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to share basic information about oneself and family.

1. "Tell me your name and age."
2. "What is one thing you like to do for fun?"
3. "Who lives with you at home?"
4. "Tell me one thing about your mom, dad, or sibling."
5. "What is your family's favorite food to eat together?"

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Completeness	Cover self (name, age, likes) +3 details	Covers self + 2 details	Covers self + 1 detail	Only shares 1-2 small Facts about self
Clarity	Speech is clear, loud, and easy to understand	Mostly clear with minor pauses	Somewhat unclear or quiet	Hard to understand; mumbles
Organization	Shares info in a logical order (self-first, then family)	Mostly logical order	Somewhat disorganized	No clear order

LESSON 2: FOLLOW ONE-STEP TO TWO-STEP PHYSICAL DIRECTIONS

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to follow simple physical directions.

1. “Stand up.” (2-step)
2. “Walk to the window and point at something blue.” (2-step)
3. “Pick up the pencil and put it on the table.” (2-step)
4. “Turn around and clap your hands once.” (2-step)
5. “Go to the front of the room and wave at me.” (2-step)

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Correctness of Steps	Performs all steps exactly as instructed	Performs all steps with 1 minor error	Performs 1-2 steps correctly	Performs few or no steps correctly
Order of Steps	Follows the exact order given	Follows order with 1 small mix-up	Mixes up most steps	No sense of order
Timeliness	Completes steps quickly and confidently	Completes steps at steady pace	Takes time to start/finish	Hesitates heavily or refuses to try

LESSON 3: GIVE & FOLLOW ONE TO TWO-STEP VERBAL DIRECTIONS

(e.g., “Ask your younger sister to keep her toys away—what will you say?

Give at least two instructions”)

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to phrase simple verbal instructions.

1. “If you want your friend to pass you a pencil, what will you say?” (1-instruction)
2. “You want your sibling to do something for you. How will you say it?” (1- instruction)
3. “What would you say to ask someone to open the window?” (1-instruction)
4. “If you want your mom to give you a snack, what will you say?” (1-instruction)
5. “Tell me how to ask a classmate if you need help.” (1-instruction)

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Number of Instructions	Gives 2+ clear, distinct instructions 4	Gives 2 instructions (1 slightly unclear)	Gives a clear instruction	Gives 0-1 vague/unclear instruction
Clarity & Tone	Language is simple, friendly, and easy for a child to understand	Mostly simple/friendly with minor formality	A bit too Complex or stern	Confusing, too formal, or rude
Relevance	Instructions directly relate to “keeping my toys away”	Mostly relevant to the task	Slightly off-topic	Unrelated to the task

LESSON 4: RECOGNIZE DESCRIBING WORDS

(color, shape, size, height, weight, length, distance, etc.)

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to name basic describing words.

1. “Look at this red apple—what color is it?”
2. “Look at this big box—what word tells the size of the box?”
3. “Look at this round ball—what shape is the ball?”
4. “Look at this tall tree—what word tells us how high it is?”
5. “Look at this short pencil—what word tells us the length of the object?”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Relevance	All words are exactly describing the item/place/person	Most words are relevant	Some words are relevant	No relevant describing words
Variety	Uses 4+ different types of descriptors (e.g. color + shape + size)	Uses 2-3 different types	Uses 1 type of descriptor	Repeats the same word or uses none
Accuracy	Descriptors are 100% correct	Mostly correct with 1 minor mistake	Partially correct	Mostly incorrect

LESSON 5: TALK ABOUT TOPICS OF INTEREST

(e.g., “Tell me what you think about this picture”)

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to share basic thoughts about a topic.

1. “I’m showing you a picture of a dog—what do you think about it?”
2. “What is your favorite toy? Tell me one thing you like about it.”
3. “Look at this picture of a park—what would you do there?”
4. “What is your favorite cartoon? Tell me why you like it.”
5. “Look at this picture of ice cream—do you like it? Why or why not?”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Relevance	Talks only about details/ideas from the picture	Mostly relevant to the picture	Somewhat off-topic at times	Unrelated to the picture
Depth of thought	Shares 3+ ideas/opinions	Shares 2 ideas/opinions	Shares 1 simple idea/observation	Only says 1-2 words (e.g., “It’s nice”)
Clarity	Speech is clear, with good eye contact	Mostly clear with minor pauses	Somewhat unclear or quiet	Hard to understand

LESSON 6: DESCRIBE IT AND I DRAW

(Show children a picture; they describe it so someone else can draw it)

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to describe simple pictures in basic terms.

1. “I’m showing you a picture of a sun—describe it so I can draw it.”
2. “Describe this picture of a bird—tell me its color and shape.”
3. “I’m showing you a picture of a house—describe what it looks like.”
4. “Describe this picture of a flower—tell me its color and how many petals it has.”
5. “Look at the picture of a car—describe its shape and color.”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Detail	Describes 5+ key elements (people, objects, colors)	Describes 3- 4 key elements	Describes 1-2 key elements	Describes no key elements
Clarity	Description is so clear, someone could draw it easily	Mostly clear enough to follow	Somewhat confusing	Impossible to understand what’s being described

LESSON 7: USING STORY CHAIN

(Each student has their own story; pair up to tell it in first person, then switch pairs to retell the partner's story)

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to tell a short story in first person.

1. "Tell me a short story about something you did yesterday—start with 'I'."
2. "Tell me a story about a time you played with a friend—use 'I' when talking about yourself."
3. "Tell me a short made-up story about a magical animal—start with 'I saw a magical...'."
4. "Tell me a story about something that made you happy—use 'I'."
5. "Tell me a short story about going to the park—start with 'I went to the park...'."

LESSON 8: USING PICTURE TALK

Pre-Test

1. Point to one thing in the picture and name it.
2. What color is the [object] in the picture?
3. Tell me about something big and/or small you see on the picture.

LESSON 9: USING POEMS

Pre-test

1. Clap the rhythm of a nursery rhyme (e.g., "Twinkle, Twinkle").
2. Repeat a line from a simple poem after the teacher.
3. Do you like poems that rhyme? Why?

LESSON 10: TALK, PLAY AND SHARE

Pre-Test

1. Describe what the people or animals in the picture are doing.
(Example: "The girl is jumping.")
2. What do you think the weather is like in the picture? How do you know?
3. Ask a friend: "What do you like about this picture?"

LESSON 11: USING WORD ASSOCIATION

PRE-TEST (5 items)

Assesses prior ability to think of one word related to a given word

1. “I say ‘cat’—what’s one word that makes you think of ‘cat’?”
2. “I say ‘sun’—what’s one word that goes with ‘sun’?”
3. “I say ‘book’—what’s one word related to ‘book’?”
4. “I say ‘water’—what’s one word that makes you think of ‘water’?”
5. “I say ‘friend’—what’s one word that goes with ‘friend’?”

LESSON 12: USING TONGUE TWISTERS

PRE-TEST (3 items)

Assesses prior ability to say simple tongue twisters slowly

1. “Say this slowly: ‘Red lorry, yellow lorry.’”
2. “Say this slowly: ‘She sells seashells by the seashore.’”
3. “Say this slowly: ‘Six sick sheep shepherds’ sheep.’”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Pronunciation	Pronounces all words correctly (even at speed)	Most correct pronunciation	Some mispronunciations but still clear	Many mispronunciations; hard to follow
Fluency	Says the tongue twister smoothly 2+ times	Says it smoothly once, with 1 pause	Says it with 2-3 pauses	Stumbles heavily or can’t finish
Effort & Confidence	Tries enthusiastically, speaks loudly	Tries willingly, mostly loud	Tries but is quiet/hesitant	Reluctant to try or gives up

LESSON 1 TALKING ABOUT ONESELF AND ONE'S FAMILY

Sentence starter

My name is

I am _____years old.

My family has

We like to

LESSON 2 FOLLOWING 1-TO-2-STEP ORAL DIRECTIONS

MISSION CARD

Run to the door, then close it.

Go to your chair, then sit down.

LESSON 3 GIVING AND FOLLOWING 1-TO-2-STEP ORAL DIRECTIONS IN DAILY SITUATIONS

SCENARIO CARD 1

Your younger sister left her dolls on the bed. What 2 things will you ask her to do?

SCENARIO CARD 2

Your younger brother throws his trash anywhere. What 2 things will you ask him to do?

LESSON 4 DESCRIBING WORD TOOLKIT

1. SIZES

2. COLOR

3. SHAPES

4. HOW THINGS FEEL

5. HOW THINGS LOOK

6. FEELINGS

7. NUMBERS

LESSON 5 TALKING ABOUT TOPIC OF INTEREST

WHAT IS THIS ANIMAL?
a colorful fish

WHAT ARE THEY DOING?
playing with friends

WHAT IS THIS ANIMAL?
a sleepy owl

WHAT ARE THESE ANIMALS?
a family of ducks

WHAT IS THE CHILD DOING?
building a sandcastle

WHAT IS THIS?

WHAT IS THIS INSECT?
a colorful butterfly

WHAT IS THE CAT DOING?

LESSON 7 ORAL LANGUAGE USING PICTURE STORY CHAIN STRATEGY

LESSON 8 ORAL LANGUAGE USING PICTURE TALK ACTIVITIES

LESSON 9 RECITE, CLAP & SMILE – Little Voices Shining Through Poems

“BAA, BAA, BLACK SHEEP

“TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE STAR”

"FIVE LITTLE DUCKS"

“THE ITSY-BITSY SPIDER”

Lesson 10: Talk, Play and share

LESSON 11 WORD FRIENDS (WORD ASSOCIATION)

LESSON 12 FUN WITH TONGUE TWISTERS

Tongue Twister Badges

Tongue Twister Star

Additional Intervention Material

Learning Competency: Talk about oneself and one's family

Instruction: Tell me something about yourself.

Rubrics

1	2	3	4
Pupil mentioned only his name	Pupil mentioned 2 – 3 details about himself	Pupil mentioned 4 details about himself	Pupil mentioned 5 or more details about himself

Additional Intervention Material

Learning Competency: Follow one to two steps directions

Instructions: 1. Go to the door and close it.

2. Run back to your seat.

Rubrics

1	2	3	4
Pupil attempted to do what has been said.	Pupil executed wrongly what has been said.	Pupil executed incompletely what has been said	Pupil executed accurately what has been said.

Additional Intervention Material

Instructions: You ask your younger sister to keep her toys away. What will you say? Give her at least two instructions.

Rubrics

1	2	3	4
Pupil give incomplete/inaccurate direction.	Pupil gave 1 accurate direction.	Pupil gave 2 accurate and complete directions.	Pupil gave more than 2 accurate and complete directions.

Additional Intervention Material

Learning Competency: Use describing words for people, objects, things and places (color, shape, size, height, weight, length, distance, etc.)

Instructions: Show a red ball.

Teacher says: Tell me something about the object I am holding.

Rubrics

1	2	3	4
Pupil says “ball”	Pupil says “a ball”	Pupil says “A red ball”	Pupil says “It is a red ball.” (or tell more something about it.)

Additional Intervention Material

Learning Competency: Talk about topics of interest

Instruction: Tell me what you think about this picture.

Additional Intervention Material

Learning Competency: Asking Questions

Instructions: Things you should know:

- Number of Players: 2-10
- Setup: Choose 1 player to be “it,” and have them think of a secret person, place or thing.
- Object of the game: Other players attempt to guess the secret person, place, or thing, but they only get 20 questions to do so.

"This game works best with a small to medium-sized group of people, so that everyone gets a chance to ask a question. Choose a random player to be "it." This could be the youngest player in the group, the player who's had the most recent birthday, or something silly, like who can eat a piece of pizza the fastest.

Question 1

Think of a person, place, or thing for other players to guess if you're "it." Think of someone or something that you know enough about to answer some basic questions about, and keep it a secret! If you choose a person, they can be living, deceased, or even fictional. Make sure you choose a person, place, or thing that most people in your group know about.

- For example, your item could be "Manny Pacquiao," since he is famous enough that most people will be able to make guesses about him. You could also choose something like your town, Philippines, or even clouds or the sun.
- Avoid items like "my mom" or "my dog" unless you are with your siblings or best friends, since the players might not know enough about them to guess.

Question 2

Ask yes-or-no questions if you're not "it." If you're not "it," your goal is to figure out what the "it" person is thinking of by asking questions to narrow down the possibilities. Try using a fairly general opening question that can be answered with "yes" or "no" to narrow down your options.

For example:

- “Is it alive?”
- “Is it an object?”
- “Is it fictional?”
- “Is it bigger than a toaster?”

Question 3

Take turns asking more specific yes-or-no questions to narrow it down. You can ask questions in any order that you'd like, but make sure each player gets to ask at least 1 question. If a player asks a question that can't be answered with “yes” or “no,” ask them to rephrase it so that it can be, since the person who's “it” can only say “yes” or “no.”

- For example, a player couldn't ask, “How old are they?” or “What do they look like?” They could ask, “Are they older than 50?” or, “Do they have blonde hair?”

Think about the questions that have already been asked before you ask new questions. For example, you could go from "Is it a person?" to "Is it a man?" to "Are they alive?" to "Do they live in the Philippines?"

Play until you reach 10 questions or someone guesses the right answer. Become the next “it” person if you guess the correct answer. The person who guesses the right answer is next to be “it,” and they think up their own secret person, place, or thing. If no one guessed the person, place, or thing at all, whoever wants to go next can have a turn. Keep the game going until everyone has had a chance to be “it.”

- If someone guesses correctly but they've already been “it,” let someone else have a turn instead. Giving everyone a turn makes the game more inclusive and lets everybody have some fun!

Additional Intervention Material DESCRIBE and DRAW

Instructions: 1. Show a picture. The picture might be a page from a storybook that the children are familiar with, or a picture like one of these.

Simple black line drawing

Complex black line drawing

Complex geometrical shape

2. Ask children what they see. “What do you see in the pictures?” or “What do you notice?” Learners’ answers may vary. Accept their responses. We want to get children to begin to describe what they see in their own words.

- “I see a house.”
- “I see a door.”
- “I see a girl flying.”
- “I see a weird tree.”
- “I see squares.”

3. Take the children's lead and respond to their ideas by asking follow-up questions.

- "Where do you see the squares? Where do you see the tree?"
- "Can you tell me more about the _____?"
- "What do you notice about what's in the back corner?"
- "How do you know that this is a triangle? Are those both triangles?"

4. Ask students to draw what they see.

- Keep the picture available; this is not a memory task.
- This is not a tracing task either. We are asking children to draw what they see. (Expect a wide variety!)
- Children often begin by drawing portions of the picture (just the tree, just the oval for the body of the tree, etc.)

5. Move around and check in with them as they are drawing. You can ask questions based on what they drew to get them to add detail to their drawing. It is important to remember that the children should not think that the drawing has to look exactly like the picture. “You draw what YOU see.” (You might want to remind children that what they see might be different from what someone else sees.)

6. As children finish, ask them to tell you about what they drew. Older children could describe their own drawing to a partner, and vice versa. After discussion, children should go back and add detail to their own drawing.

7. Consider sharing a couple of examples of children's drawings and ask the child to describe to the class what they drew. Let other children add what they see. Use this as an opportunity to highlight one idea you want to engage the group in (perhaps noticing a particular shape, or using specific language such as above or below, or describing where an object is in relation to other objects).

Additional Intervention Material TONGUE TWISTER

1. Sheena leads, Sheila needs.
2. How can a clam cram in a clean cream can?
3. Top chopstick shops stock top chopsticks.
4. Selfish shellfish.
5. I saw a kitten eating chicken in the kitchen.
6. Near an ear, a nearer ear, a nearly eerie ear.
7. Roberta ran rings around the Roman ruins.
8. He threw three free throws.
9. A happy hippo hopped and hiccupped.
10. Toy boat. Toy boat. Toy boat.
11. Smelly shoes and socks shock sisters.
12. Four fine fresh fish for you.
13. Red lorry, yellow lorry (x3)
14. Freshly-fried flying fish. (x3)

Additional Intervention Material STORY CHAIN

Learning Competency: Retelling a short story.

Instructions: A Story Chain is a simple method of passing a story around the class, giving each student plenty of practice in storytelling.

Prepare a Story

Choose short stories that can be told in 1-3 minutes. You may consider these sample stories suggested.

Running the Activity

Let the pupils come together in pairs. Each pair is given a short picture story. Give them time to work through it by making their own story about the pictures. At the teachers signal, students A will tell the story to student B. Break up the pair and each child gets a new partner. They take turns in retelling the story they heard from their first partners to the new partner.

You can do this several times. At the end you get individuals from the class to recite the last story they heard and then compare it with the original, see if it has improved in the storytelling, see what facts have changed completely and maybe see if the original storyteller can actually recognize their story!

Sample stories:

Story 1 Mia and the Shiny Stone

I have a cat named Mia. It is an orange cat. While playing in the garden, Mia found a shiny blue stone. She found it under the red rose buds. The stone was so smooth and bright that Mia held it gently in her paws. Suddenly, the stone made a tiny ding sound! Mia's ears perked up.

Story 2 Pip the Rabbit and the Wobbly Carrot

My father bought me a rabbit. I named him Pip. Pip, is a white rabbit. It dug up a purple carrot. It felt soft and wobbly in his teeth. Pip was about to take a bite but the carrot jiggled on its own!

Story 3 Lila the Bird's Lost Song

My sister Jessa has a blue bird that forgot how to sing. It did not cheep. No trills, no sound, just silence. The bird found a tiny paper note under a tree and pecked it. The note made a sweet tinkle sound.

Story 4 "The Shell at the Beach"

"Yesterday, I walked along the sandy beach and found a small shell. It glowed purple and green in the sun! I held it to my ear and listened to the sound of the sea. I wanted to keep it forever."

Story 5 "The Bell on the Playground"

"At recess today, I found a tiny brass bell under the slide. When I shook it, it sounded like soft music! I showed it to my friend Leo. Then we took turns ringing it. It was the prettiest sound I'd ever heard."

Story 6 "The Feather in the Garden"

"One morning, I was watering flowers in the garden. A feather floated down. It was soft and white, and it fluttered in the wind before landing in my hand. I think it came from the big bird in the tree above our house."

Unknown word: fluttered (moved lightly up and down)

Story 7 "The Toy in My Closet"

"I was cleaning my closet and found an old toy car I'd forgotten. When I pushed it, the wheels whirred fast across the floor! It was red and shiny, even after all these years. I couldn't wait to play with it again."

Unknown word: whirred (made a soft, buzzing sound)

Story 8 "The Stone in the Forest"

"On our walk in the forest, I spotted a smooth stone by the path. It was polished until it looked like glass. It was like the color of the sky. I put it in my pocket to show my mom. My Mom loves pretty rocks."

Unknown word: polished (made smooth and shiny)

Story 9 "The Butterfly on the Flower"

"I sat on the porch and watched a butterfly land on a pink rose. Its wings were orange and black, and it darted from flower to flower. I held my breath so I wouldn't scare it away. It stayed for five whole minutes!"

Unknown word: darted (moved quickly and suddenly)

Story 10 "The Note in the Library"

"I was looking for a book in the library when I found a note under a shelf. It was scrawled in colorful crayon and said, 'Meet me at the park!' I wondered who wrote it—maybe my friend Lila?"

Unknown word: scrawled (written quickly and messily)

Story 11 "The Leaf on the Bench"

"I sat on the park bench and picked up a leaf from the ground. It was crimson—a bright, deep red—like a little fire! I pressed it between two pages of my notebook to keep it safe. It's my favorite leaf ever."

Unknown word: crimson (a dark red color)

Story 12 "The Cookie Cutter in the Kitchen"

"I was helping mom bake cookies when I found a tiny cookie cutter in the drawer. It had an intricate shape—like a little star with lots of points! We used it to make star cookies, and they tasted so good."

Unknown word: intricate (having many small, detailed parts)

Story 13 "The Button at the Bus Stop"

"While waiting for the bus, I found a button on the ground. It was silver and it glinted in the sunlight. It is like a tiny moon! I showed it to the bus driver. The driver helped me put it in the 'lost and found' box."

Unknown word: glinted (shone with a quick, bright flash)

Additional Intervention Material PICTURE TALK

Picture talk activities are engaging ways to enhance children's communication skills, imagination, and comprehension through discussions based on images.

What is a Picture Talk Activity?

A picture talk activity involves using images to spark discussions among children. This method encourages kids to observe, analyze, and express their thoughts about the pictures, fostering their communication and literacy skills. It can be adapted to various topics, making it a versatile tool for learning.

Steps to Create Picture Talk Activities

1. Choose a Topic: Select a theme that interests the children, such as nature, family, or sports. This helps to engage them more effectively.
2. Select a Picture: Find a picture that aligns with the chosen topic. It should be visually stimulating and rich in details to encourage discussion.
3. Project the Image: Display the picture on a screen or print it out for the children to see. This allows everyone to focus on the same visual stimulus.

LESSON PLAN 1: ORAL LANGUAGE – TALKING ABOUT ONESELF AND ONE’S FAMILY

I. OBJECTIVES

At the end of the 45-minute lesson, the students will be able to:

1. Share at least 3 key details about oneself (name, age, favorite activity) using clear voice and proper pronunciation;
2. Talk about 2-3 family members and one thing they like to do together;
3. Maintain eye contact with their audience when speaking.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Sharing Information About Oneself and One’s Family

References: Adapted from elementary oral communication curricula and early childhood language development resources

Materials: Visual aid (chart) with sentence starters:

"My name is...", "I am ___ years old...",

"My family has...", "We like to..."

Picture cards (e.g., of a child, parents, siblings, toys, activities like playing, eating)

"About Me" worksheet (simple, with spaces for drawing and writing key details)

Evaluation checklist

III. PROCEDURE

1. PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES

Warm-Up

Lead a "Hello Circle" – students stand in a circle, take turns saying "Hello, my name is [name]" while waving to the class.

Encourage them to speak loudly enough for everyone to hear.

Motivation

Show a colorful picture of a happy family doing an activity (e.g., picnicking). Ask: "Who do you see in this picture?" and "What do you like to do with your own family?" Let 2-3 students share a quick thought to get them excited to talk more.

2. DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Introduce Key Details: Display the visual aid with sentence starters. Explain that when we talk about ourselves and our family, we can use these sentences to make our ideas clear.

Modeling: Share your own example in simple terms: "Hi, my name is [Teacher's Name]. I am [age]. My favorite activity is reading. My family has [2 people] – my mom and dad. We like to cook together on weekends!" Use picture cards to point to each detail as you speak.

Practice Sentence Starters: Have the class repeat the sentence starters together 2-3 times to build confidence.

3. GUIDED PRACTICE

Pair-and-Share Activity: Divide students into pairs. Give each pair a set of picture cards to use as clues.

1. Student A uses the sentence starters to share about themselves and their family.

2. Student B listens, then shares their own information.
3. Circulate around pairs to support: remind them to speak clearly, make eye contact, and use the picture cards if they get stuck.

After 8 minutes, ask 2-3 volunteer pairs to share one thing they learned about each other with the class.

IV. EVALUATION

Use an informal checklist to assess each student during pair-and-share:

1	2	3	4
Pupil mentioned only his name	Pupil mentioned 2 – 3 details about himself	Pupil mentioned 4 details about himself	Pupil mentioned 5 or more details about himself

V. AGREEMENT

For homework, students will:

Talk to one family member about their favorite activity.

Draw a picture of themselves and that family member doing that activity.

Be ready to share what they learned with the class in our next lesson.

LESSON PLAN 2: ORAL LANGUAGE – FOLLOWING 1-TO-2-STEP ORAL DIRECTIONS

I. OBJECTIVES

At the end of the 45-minute lesson, the students will be able to:

1. Listen carefully to follow 1-step and 2-step oral directions accurately;
2. Repeat the directions in their own words before completing them;
3. Perform the actions in the correct order.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Following 1-to-2-Step Oral Directions

References: Adapted from elementary oral language curricula and motor skill development resources

Materials: Visual aid (chart) with action words and pictures: go, close, run, pick up, sit, give Simple props (classroom items): door, chair, book, pencil, toy "Mission Card" set (with pre-written 1-2 step directions) Informal evaluation checklist

III. PROCEDURE

1. PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES

Warm-Up (5 minutes):

Lead the class in an "Action Song" (e.g., "Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes") – have them follow along with your oral cues to practice listening and moving.

Motivation (5 minutes):

Say: "Today, you're all secret agents on a special mission! To complete the mission, you need to listen very carefully to my directions. If you follow them right, you'll get a 'Secret Agent Badge' at the end!" Show a fun, hand-drawn badge to build excitement.

2. DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Introduce 1-Step Directions: Display the visual aid with action words. Give a simple 1-step direction (e.g., "Go to the chair") and do it yourself to model. Ask 3-4 students to try one at a time, reminding them to listen first.

Introduce 2-Step Directions: Explain that 2-step directions have two actions to do in order. Model with: "Go to the door, then close it." Point to the visual cards for "go" and "close" as you speak. Have students repeat the direction back to you before trying it.

Practice Repeating Directions: Teach them the phrase, "Let me say that back: [repeat direction]" to make sure they understand. Practice with 2-3 more 2-step directions (e.g., "Pick up the book, then give it to me").

3. ANALYSIS / DISCUSSION (5 minutes)

Ask: "When I said 'Go to the door and close it,' what was the first thing you did? The second thing?" (Let students share to confirm order.)

Follow up: "Why is it important to listen to all the direction before you start?" (e.g., "So, you don't forget the second step," "So, you do it right")

Remind them: "Repeating the direction back helps you make sure you heard it correctly!"

4. GUIDED PRACTICE (10 minutes)

Secret Agent Mission Trail: Set up 3 simple stations around the classroom. Give each small group (4-5 students) a "Mission Card" with a 1 or 2-step direction for each station.

Station 1: "Go to the window and tap it twice."

Station 2: "Pick up one pencil and put it on the table."

Station 3: "Run to the whiteboard, then sit down in your chair."

Each student takes a turn leading their group through a station: they read the mission card aloud, their group repeats it back, then everyone does the action together. Circulate to support and remind students to follow order and speak clearly

IV. EVALUATION (5 minutes)

Give 1-2 steps directions orally. Rate the learner's performance based on the rubrics.

Rubrics

1	2	3	4
Pupil attempted to do what has been said.	Pupil executed wrongly what has been said.	Pupil executed incompletely what has been said	Pupil executed accurately what has been said.

V. AGREEMENT

For homework, students will:

Be a "family helper" by following one 2-step direction from a parent or guardian (e.g., "Set one plate on the table and put a fork next to it").

Ask their family member to give them a "thumbs up" if they did it right.

Share what direction they followed with the class in our next lesson.

LESSON PLAN 3: ORAL LANGUAGE – GIVING AND FOLLOWING 1-TO-2-STEP ORAL DIRECTIONS IN DAILY SITUATIONS

I. OBJECTIVE

At the end of the 45-minute lesson, the students will be able to:

1. Give clear 1-2 step oral directions using polite language (e.g., "can you," "please");
2. Follow 1-2 step directions given by a peer;
3. Identify 2 key elements of effective directions (clarity, order) and polite communication.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Giving and Following 1-2-Step Directions (e.g., Asking a Sibling to Tidy Up Toys)

References: Adapted from elementary oral communication curricula and social skills development resources

Materials:

Visual aid (chart) with:

Polite phrase starters: "Can you...?", "Please...", "Thank you!"

Action words with pictures: keep away, put in, pick up, close

Toy props (dolls, cars, blocks, a toy box)

Scenario cards (e.g., "Your younger sister left toys on the floor",
"Your brother left books on the couch")

Informal evaluation checklist

III. PROCEDURE

1. PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES

Warm-Up (5 minutes):

Lead a "Follow My Lead" game: Give 1-2 step directions (e.g., "Pick up one block and put it on your desk") and have the class do them together. This review following directions before moving to giving them.

Motivation (5 minutes):

Show a photo of a messy playroom with toys scattered. Ask: "Have you ever seen a room like this? If your younger sister made this mess, what would you say to ask her to clean it up?" Let 2-3 students share quick ideas, then say: "Today, we'll learn to ask nicely with clear steps so she knows exactly what to do!"

2. DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES (15 minutes)

Introduce Polite Directions: Display the visual aid with polite phrases. Explain that when asking someone to do something, we use kind words like "can you" and "please" to be respectful.

Model Giving 2-Step Directions: Use the toy props to act out the scenario: "Let's pretend this doll is my younger sister, and these toys are on the floor. I'll say: "Can you please keep your toys away and put them in the toy box?" Point to the action pictures ("keep away," "put in") as you speak to show order.

Practice Making Directions: Have the class repeat the model direction together. Then, guide them to make their own 2-step direction for the same scenario (e.g., "Can you pick up your cars and put them on the shelf?").

3. ANALYSIS / DISCUSSION

Ask: "What polite words did I use when asking my sister?" (Let students point to the visual aid.)

Follow up: "What was the first step I asked her to do? The second step? Why is order important?" (e.g., "So, she doesn't get confused," "So, she does everything needed").

Ask: "How do you think your sister would feel if you asked nicely vs. yelling?" (Emphasize that polite language helps others want to help.)

4. GUIDED PRACTICE

Role-Play Activity: Divide students into pairs. Give each pair a scenario card and toy props.

1. One student plays the "older sibling" and gives a clear 2-step direction using polite language.
2. The other student plays the "younger sibling," listens, and follows the directions.
3. Pairs switch roles after 5 minutes.

Circulate around pairs to support: Remind them to use polite phrases, keep directions clear, and follow steps in order. Example scenario prompt for pairs: "Your younger sister left her dolls on the bed. What 2 things will you ask her to do?"

IV. EVALUATION

Use an informal checklist to assess each student during the role-play:

Criteria	Uses polite language (can you, please) when giving directions	Gives clear 2-step directions in the correct order	Listens carefully and follows peer's directions accurately
Excellent
Good
Satisfactory

Note: Assess by observing each pair once. Give positive feedback like, "Great job asking nicely!" or "Perfect order of steps!"

V. AGREEMENT

For homework, students will:

Find a time to give one 2-step direction to a family member (sibling, parent, or grandparent) using polite language (e.g., "Can you please pass the spoon and put it on my plate?").

Ask the family member if they understood the directions.

Share what direction they gave and how it went with the class in our next lesson.

LESSON PLAN 4: ORAL LANGUAGE – USING DESCRIBING WORDS FOR PEOPLE, OBJECTS, THINGS, AND PLACES

I. OBJECTIVE

At the end of the 45-minute lesson, the students will be able to:

1. Use describing words to talk about people, objects, things, and places. (color, shape, size, height, weight, length, distance, etc.)
2. Match describing words to the attributes of what they are talking about.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Recognizing and Using Describing Words (Attributes: Color, Shape, Size, Height, Weight, Length, Distance)

References: Adapted from elementary oral language curricula and vocabulary development resources

Materials:

Visual aid (chart) titled "My Describing Word Toolkit" – with words and pictures: red, round, big, tall, heavy, long, far, cozy

Props with different attributes: colored blocks, toys (ball, box, car, doll), books (thick, thin), plants (tall, short), photos of places (sunny park, quiet room)

"Describe It!" cards (with pictures of people, objects, or places)

Informal evaluation checklist

III. PROCEDURE

1. PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES

Warm-Up (5 minutes):

Lead a "Word Clue" game: Say, "I'm thinking of something in this room that's red. Can you guess what it is?" Have students call out guesses, then reveal the object. Repeat with 3-4 more clues (e.g., "It's round," "It's big").

Motivation (5 minutes):

Show a plain drawing of a cat and a colorful, detailed drawing of the same cat. Ask: "Which drawing tells you more about the cat? Why?" Explain: "Today, we'll learn about 'describing words' – these are like magic clues that help us tell others exactly what something looks like, feels like, or where it is!"

2. DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Introduce Describing Words: Display the "Describing Word Toolkit" chart. Point to each word and its picture, and say: "These words describe attributes – what something is like. 'Red' is a color, 'round' is a shape, 'big' is a size, and 'far' is a distance." Have students repeat each word aloud.

Describing words toolkit (see intervention materials)

1. Colors

Red, blue, green, yellow, orange, purple, pink, black, white, brown

2. Sizes

Big, small, tall, short, long, tiny, huge

3. Shapes

Round, square, triangle, circle, flat

4. How things feel

Soft, hard, smooth, rough, sticky, fuzzy, warm, cold

5. How things look

Bright, dark, shiny, dull, clean, dirty, wet, dry

6. Feelings (for people/animals)

Happy, sad, angry, scared, excited, sleepy, friendly

7. Numbers (to describe how many)

One, two, three, many, few, some

Model Using Describing Words: Pick up a red, round ball and say: "This is a red, round ball. It's also small enough to hold in my hand." Then point to a tall plant: "This is a tall, green plant that's near the window." Model for a person too: "My friend Lila has curly, brown hair and she is happy today."

Practice Naming Attributes: Hold up different props (e.g., thick book, heavy toy car) and ask: "What describing words can we use for this?" Have students share ideas and match them to the chart.

3. ANALYSIS / DISCUSSION

Ask: "Why do we use describing words when we talk?" (Let students share: "So others can picture what we're talking about," "To be clear," "To make stories more fun").

Follow up: "Can we use more than one describing word for something? Let's try with the box – is it square, blue, or both?" (Emphasize that we can combine words to give more details).

Ask: "What describing words can we use for places, like a park?" (e.g., "sunny," "big," "busy").

4. GUIDED PRACTICE

"Describe It! Share It!" Activity: Divide students into pairs. Give each pair a "Describe It!" card with a picture (e.g., a cozy bedroom, a small yellow bird, a tall boy).

1. One student looks at the picture and thinks of 2-3 describing words for it.
2. They say the describing words aloud (e.g., "It's cozy, quiet, and has a big bed") and their partner guesses what's in the picture.
3. Pairs switch roles after 5 minutes.

Circulate to support: Remind students to use words from the toolkit and match them to the picture's attributes.

IV. EVALUATION

Use an informal checklist to assess each student during the pair activity:

Criteria	Recognizes and names at least 4 describing words	Uses describing words to talk about people/objects/places	Matches describing words to the correct attributes
Excellent
Good
Satisfactory

Note: Assess by listening to each pair's descriptions. Give positive feedback like, "Great use of 'cozy' for the bedroom!" or "Perfect – 'tall' matches the boy!"

V. AGREEMENT

For homework, students will:

1. Pick one thing at home (a toy, a pet, a room) and think of 3 describing words for it.
2. Tell a family member about it using those words (e.g., "My dog is brown, fluffy, and small").

Be ready to share their description with the class in our next lesson.

LESSON PLAN 5: ORAL LANGUAGE – TALKING ABOUT TOPICS OF INTEREST THROUGH PICTURE DISCUSSION

I. OBJECTIVE

At the end of the 45-minute lesson, the students will be able to:

1. Share their thoughts, feelings, and observations about a picture on a topic of interest;
2. Use simple sentence starters to organize their ideas clearly;
3. Listen respectfully to peers' thoughts and ask one follow-up question.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Talking About Topics of Interest (e.g., Toys, Pets, Parks, Festivals)

"Tell Me What You Think About This Picture"

References: Adapted from elementary oral communication curricula and expressive language development resources

Materials:

Visual aid (chart) with sentence starters: "I see...", "I think...", "I like...", "It makes me feel..."

Colorful pictures of kid-friendly topics (e.g., a dog playing in a park, a birthday party with toys, a colorful festival, a cozy pet corner)

"Picture Card Packs" (one pack per small group, with 3-4 pictures on different interests) informal evaluation checklist.

1. PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES

Warm-Up

Lead a "Quick Share" circle: Ask students to say one sentence about something they love (e.g., "I love my cat" or "I love playing with blocks"). Encourage them to speak clearly and look at the class.
valuation checklist

Motivation

Hold up a bright picture of a dog playing in a sunny park. Ask: "Who likes dogs? What do you see in this picture? What do you think the dog is feeling?" Let 2-3 students call out quick ideas, then say: "Today, we'll learn to share our thoughts about pictures we like – and hear what our friends think too!"

2. DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Introduce Picture Discussion: Display the visual aid with sentence starters. Explain: "When we talk about a picture, these sentences help us share what's in our minds clearly. 'I see' tells what's in the picture, 'I think' tells our ideas, and 'I like' tells what we enjoy about it."

Model Sharing Thoughts: Focus on the dog park picture and share your own ideas: "I see a brown dog running with a red ball. I think the dog is happy because it's playing in the sun. I like this picture because it makes me want to go to the park too!" Point to each sentence starter on the chart as you speak.

Practice Sentence Starters: Have the class repeat the sentence starters together. Then, guide them to share one thought about the dog picture using one of the starters (e.g., "I see green grass" or "It makes me feel happy").

3. ANALYSIS / DISCUSSION

Ask: "What did I do to help you understand my thoughts about the picture?" (Let students point to the sentence starters.)

Follow up: "Why is it fun to talk about pictures we like?" (e.g., "Because we can share what we love," "We can learn what our friends like too").

Remind them: "When others are talking, we listen carefully – that's how we show we care about their ideas. We can even ask a small question, like 'Why do you like that?' to learn more!"

4. GUIDED PRACTICE

"Picture Talk" Groups: Divide students into small groups (4-5 students each) and give each group a "Picture Card Pack" with topics they'll enjoy.

1. One student picks a picture from the pack and shares their thoughts using at least 2 sentence starters.
2. The other students listen, then one peer asks a follow-up question (e.g., "What do you think the cat in the picture is eating?").
3. Everyone in the group takes a turn picking a picture and sharing.

Circulate around groups to support: Remind them to use the sentence starters, speak clearly, and listen respectfully.

III. EVALUATION

Use an informal checklist to assess each student during group discussion:

Criteria	Shares thoughts/observations about the picture	Uses at least 2 sentence starters to organize ideas	Listens respectfully to peers and asks a follow-up question
Excellent
Good
Satisfactory

Note: Assess by observing each student's participation. Give positive feedback like, "Great use of 'I think'!" or "Nice question – that helped us learn more!"

IV. AGREEMENT

For homework, students will:

1. - Find a picture at home (in a book, on a calendar, or on a device with family help) of something they love.
2. - Talk to a family member about it using the sentence starters: "I see...", "I think...", "I like..."

Be ready to share their picture and thoughts with the class in our next lesson.

LESSON PLAN 6: ORAL LANGUAGE – DESCRIBE AND DRAW

I. OBJECTIVE

At the end of the 45-minute lesson, the students will be able to:

1. Use specific describing words (color, shape, size, position) to clearly describe a picture;
2. Listen carefully to a peer's description and draw what they hear;
3. Identify 2-3 key details that make a description easy to understand.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: "Describe and Draw" – Using Oral Language to Share Visual Details

References: Adapted from elementary oral communication curricula and expressive/receptive language development resources

Materials:

Teacher's model picture (colorful, with clear details: e.g., a red bird on a green tree branch next to a yellow flower)

Set of "secret pictures" (one per pair, different from each other, with simple, distinct elements)

Paper and crayons for each student

Visual aid (chart) with key describing words: color words, round, square, big, small, on top, next to, under

Informal evaluation checklist

III. PROCEDURE

1. PREPARATORY ACTIVITIES

Warm-Up

Lead a "Quick Draw" game: Say, "I'm going to describe something—draw what you hear!" Describe a simple object (e.g., "a small, blue square") and have students draw it. Show their drawings and talk about how clear words helped them.

Motivation

Hold up your model picture (but don't show it to the class yet). Say: "I have a secret picture! If I describe it well enough, you'll be able to draw it without even seeing it. Want to try? Today, we'll play a 'Describe and Draw' game where we're like 'picture messengers'—using words to send images to our friends!"

2. DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Introduce Key Description Details: Display the visual aid. Explain: "When we describe a picture, we need to share details like what color things are, what shape they are, how big they are, and where they are. These details help the person drawing know exactly what to put on their paper."

Teacher Modeling: Show the model picture to the class for 10 seconds, then hide it. Describe it slowly and clearly: "First, there's a big, green tree branch in the middle. On top of the branch, there's a small, red bird with a yellow beak. Next to the bird, there's a bright yellow flower with five petals. The sky behind is light blue." As you describe, point to the words on the visual aid. Have students draw along as you speak.

Check and Discuss: Show the model picture again and let students compare their drawings. Ask: "What details helped you draw it right?" (e.g., "'on top' told me where the bird was," "'red' told me its color").

3. ANALYSIS / DISCUSSION

Ask: "What would happen if I forgot to say 'small' about the bird? Or 'next to the bird' about the flower?" (Let students share: "I might draw a big bird," "I might put the flower somewhere else").

Follow up: "Why is it important to describe things in order (e.g., 'first the branch, then the bird')?" (e.g., "So the drawer knows what to draw first," "It's easier to follow").

Remind students: "As a describer, your job is to be clear. As a drawer, your job is to listen closely—no peeking at the picture!"

4. GUIDED PRACTICE

Pair "Describe and Draw" Activity: Divide students into pairs. Give one student in each pair a "secret picture" (they must not show it to their partner). Assign roles: Describer (has the picture) and Drawer (listens and draws).

1. The Describer looks at their picture and describes it using key details and the visual aid words.
2. The Drawer listens carefully and draws what they hear—they can ask clarifying questions (e.g., "Is the cat big or small?").
3. After 5 minutes, have pairs switch roles with a new secret picture.

Circulate around pairs to support: Remind Describers to use specific details and Drawers to listen actively.

IV. EVALUATION

Use an informal checklist to assess each student in both roles

Criteria	Uses specific describing words (color, shape, position) As Describer	Captures key details from the description As Drawer	Listens respectfully and asks clarifying questions (when drawing)
Excellent
Good
Satisfactory

Note: Assess by observing pairs and looking at their drawings. Give positive feedback like, "Great job saying 'under the tree'—that helped your partner draw it right!"

V. AGREEMENT

For homework, students will:

1. Pick a favorite toy at home (e.g., a doll, car, teddy bear).
2. Describe the toy in detail to a family member, who will draw it based on their description.
3. Bring both the toy and the family's drawing to share with the class in our next lesson.

LESSON PLAN 7: ORAL LANGUAGE USING PICTURE STORY CHAIN STRATEGY

I. OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

1. Identify key elements (characters, setting, action) in a sequence of pictures.
2. Contribute at least one sentence to a group "picture story chain."
3. Speak clearly and listen attentively when participating in the group activity.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Oral Language Development through Picture Story Chain

Strategy: Picture Story Chain (collaborative storytelling using a sequence of images)

Materials:

5-6 colorful, simple picture cards (no text) showing a logical sequence (e.g., a cat waking up → going outside → finding a ball → playing with it → going home → sleeping again)

Whiteboard or chart paper

Marker

Sticky notes for student contributions

Skills: Speaking, listening, sequencing, critical thinking

Values Integration: Cooperation, respect for others' ideas

III. LEARNING PROCEDURE

A. MOTIVATION

"Guess the Next Picture" Game: Show the first 2 picture cards one by one.

Ask: "What do you see in this picture? What do you think will happen next?"

Let 2-3 students share their guesses to activate prior knowledge and spark curiosity.

B. LESSON PROPER

1. INTRODUCTION TO PICTURE STORY CHAIN

Show all 4-5 picture cards in order on the board.

Explain: "Today, we'll make a story together using these pictures! This is called a 'Picture Story Chain.' Each of you will add one sentence to the story, just like linking chains together." Point to each picture and ask students to name what they see (e.g., "This is a cat. This is a garden. This is a ball.") to build vocabulary.

2. MODELING THE ACTIVITY

Start the story with the first picture: "Once upon a time, there was a little cat named Mimi. She woke up early in her cozy bed."

Move to the second picture and add: "Mimi jumped out of bed and walked outside to the garden."

Write these sentences on the chart paper to show how the story builds.

Emphasize: "Each sentence should connect to the picture and the one before it!"

3. GROUP PICTURE STORY CHAIN

Divide the class into 5 small groups (4-5 students each).

Group 1

Group 2

Group 3

Group 4

Group 5

Give each group a set of the picture cards arranged in order.

Instructions for groups:

- The first student looks at the first picture and says one sentence.
- The next student looks at the second picture and says a sentence that connects to the first.
- Continue until all pictures are used and the story has an ending.
- One student from each group will share the complete story with the class.

Roam around groups to support:

Encourage shy students to participate (e.g., "Can you say, 'Mimi found a red ball'?")

Help students connect their sentences (e.g., "Great! After Mimi plays with the ball, what happens next?")

Write key sentences on sticky notes for each group to display.

C. GENERALIZATION

Gather the class and have both groups share their stories.

Ask: "How did working together help us make the story?" (Expected answer: "We shared ideas, listened to each other, and made a long story together.")

Conclude: "Pictures can help us tell stories, and when we work in a chain, we can make amazing stories with our friends!"

IV. EVALUATION

Formative Assessment: Observe students during the group activity and check if they:

Contribute at least one sentence.

Speak clearly.

Listen to others.

Use a simple checklist to record participation and understanding.

V. ASSIGNMENT

At home, ask students to find 3 simple pictures (from a book or magazine) and make a short story with their family using the picture story chain strategy. They will share their story with the class in the next lesson.

VI. REFLECTION

(For teacher's use only: Note which students struggled with speaking/listening, which pictures were most effective, and adjustments for future lessons.)

Picture Card Suggestion (Description for Visuals):

1. A small cat lying in a bed with eyes closed.
2. The cat standing by an open door, looking outside.
3. The cat in a garden with green grass and flowers.
4. The cat playing with a red ball.
5. The cat walking back towards the house with the ball.
6. The cat back in bed, sleeping with the ball beside it.

LESSON PLAN 8: ORAL LANGUAGE USING PICTURE TALK ACTIVITIES

I. OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

1. Describe visible details in a picture using simple words and phrases.
2. Ask and answer basic questions about the picture (who, what, where, when, why).
3. Share a short personal connection to the picture in 1-2 clear sentences.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Oral Language Development through Picture Talk

Activities: "See & Say," "Picture Question Circle," "My Connection Share"

Materials:

1 large, colorful, detailed picture (e.g., a group of children playing at a park with slides, swings, trees, a dog, and ice cream vendor)

Smaller copies of the same picture for each group (optional)

Whiteboard or chart paper Marker

"Question Cards" (with who/what/where/when/why written on them)

Skills: Speaking, listening, observing, questioning

Values Integration: Sharing, active listening, appreciating others' experiences

III. . LEARNING PROCEDURE

"Mystery Picture Peek:" Hold up the large picture with most of it covered, showing only a small part (e.g., the dog's tail).

Ask: "What do you think this is? What do you think is in the rest of the picture?"

Let 3-4 students guess, then reveal the full picture with a big "ta-da!" to build excitement.

B. LESSON PROPER

1. ACTIVITY 1: SEE & SAY

Display the large picture prominently.

Explain: "Let's play 'See & Say'! Look closely at the picture, and when you see something, stand up and say what it is. For example: 'I see a slide!'"

Let students take turns sharing what they notice. As they speak, write key words on the board (e.g., children, park, slide, dog, ice cream).

Encourage more details: "Great! What color is the slide?" or "How many children do you see?"

Check-in: Point to words on the board and ask students to point to the corresponding item in the picture.

2. ACTIVITY 2: PICTURE QUESTION CIRCLE

Have students sit in a large circle.

Give out the 5 "Question Cards" to 5 different students.

Instructions:

1. The student with the "who" card asks: "Who is in the picture?"

Let 2-3 students answer.

2. Pass the card to the next person, then the "what" card holder asks: "What are the children doing?"

3. Continue with "where" ("Where are they?"), "when" ("When do you think this is happening?"), and "why" ("Why do you think they're happy?").

Model how to ask questions clearly and how to listen before answering. For shy students, offer sentence starters: "I think they're at..." or "Maybe it's because..."

3. ACTIVITY 3: "MY CONNECTION SHARE"

Explain: "Now, think about a time you did something like what's in the picture. Can you share 1 or 2 sentences about it?"

Model with your own connection: "I remember going to the park with my friend. We played on the swings and ate ice cream!"

Let students share in pairs first (to build confidence), then invite 4-5 pairs to share their connections with the class. Praise all contributions: "That's a wonderful story! I'm glad you had fun at the park too."

C. GENERALIZATION

Gather students back together and ask: "What did we learn today about pictures?" (Expected answers: "Pictures have many things to see," "We can ask questions about them," "We can tell stories about our own lives from them.")

Conclude: "Pictures are like secret doors to talking and sharing stories. You can use any picture to practice speaking!"

IV. EVALUATION

Formative Assessment: Ask each student to say one thing they saw in the picture or one connection they made. Use a simple smiley face checklist to record if they spoke clearly and participated

V. ASSIGNMENT

At home, find a picture in a book or on a calendar. Tell your family 3 things you see in it and one time you did something similar. Be ready to share with the class tomorrow!

VI. REFLECTION

(For teacher's use only: Note which students struggled with questioning/sharing connections, which parts of the picture sparked the most discussion, and adjustments for future lessons.)

Picture Description (for the main visual):

A bright, sunny park with green grass and tall trees. Three children (2 girls, 1 boy) are playing – one on the slide, one on the swings, and one petting a brown dog. An ice cream vendor with a colorful cart stands nearby, handing an ice cream cone to a girl. There are blue skies with white clouds, and a bench where a woman is sitting and reading a book.

LESSON PLAN 9: RECITE, CLAP & SMILE – “Little Voices Shining Through Poems”

I. OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

1. Recite a short, familiar poem or nursery rhyme with a clear, loud voice.
2. Match their tone (happy, silly, soft) to the poem’s feeling.
3. Use simple gestures or actions to go with key words in the poem.
4. Listen respectfully to peers’ recitations and give a positive "thumbs up."

II. MATERIALS

Picture Poem Pack: Short, colorful poems/nursery rhymes with big images (e.g., "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," "Baa, Baa, Black Sheep," "Five Little Ducks," "The Itsy-Bitsy Spider").

Audio clips of fun, upbeat recitations (with sound effects, e.g., a "quack" for ducks, "twinkle" chimes).

Visual "Smile & Shine Recitation”

Checklist" (with emojis: 🗣️ = clear voice, 😊 = happy tone, 🙌 = gestures). Simple props (stuffed animals, toy spiders, paper stars, tiny hats) for performances.

A "Shining Star" sticker for each student.

III. PROCEDURE

A. Warm-Up: "Rhyme & Clap Dance"

Gather students in a circle.

The teacher says a rhyming word pair (e.g., "cat – hat") and claps twice. Students repeat the words and clap back.

Add simple dances: "dog – frog" → jump like a frog; "bird – word" → flap wings.

Goal: Get them moving, practicing rhymes, and using their voices confidently.

B. Motivation

The Itsy-Bitsy Spider

by Anonymous

Itsy bitsy spider climbed up the waterspout.
down came the rain
and washed the spider out;
out came the sun
and dried up all the rain;
and the itsy-bitsy spider climbed up the spout again.

Hold up a picture poem book, "The Itsy-Bitsy Spider" and point to the images.

Ask: "Who knows this poem? What does the spider do?"

Play a 1-minute audio clip of the poem with a silly, wiggly voice and "spider crawl" sound effects.

C. LESSON PROPER

"How did the voice sound? Was it happy? Silly?"

Explain: "Today, we'll pick a poem, practice saying it with our best voice, and add dances – just like the audio!"

Main Activity: "My Turn to Recite!" (15 minutes)

Break into 3 simple, hands-on steps:

Step 1: Pick & Explore (5 minutes)

Lay out the Picture Poem Pack on tables. Students choose a poem they know or like (based on the pictures).

The teacher helps each student point to the words as they say the poem aloud once (to practice reading along with their voice).

Example: A student picks "Five Little Ducks" and points to each duck as they count down.

Step 2: Practice with a Buddy & Props (7 minutes)

Pair students up (buddy up a confident reciter with a quieter one).

Give each pair a prop (e.g., stuffed duck for "Five Little Ducks," toy spider for "Itsy Bitsy").

Buddies take turns reciting:

Use the Smile & Shine Checklist to remind each other: 🗣️ "Speak loud!" 😊 "Smile!" 🖐️ "Add a dance!"

Example: For "Twinkle, Twinkle," students hold up paper stars and twirl them in the air when they say "twinkle."

Step 3: Polish with the Teacher (3 minutes)

The teacher circulates to listen to 1–2 lines from each student, giving quick feedback: "Great job wiggling like a spider!" or "Try speaking a little louder so I can hear you better!"

Closure: "Little Voices Showcase" (5 minutes)

Invite 4–5 volunteers to recite their poem for the class (or have all pairs share in small "mini-circles" if time is tight).

After each recitation, the class gives a positive response: "Thumbs up for [student's name]!" or a quick clap.

Ask 1–2 students: "What was fun about reciting your poem?" (e.g., "Jumping like a duck!")

End with a class cheer: "Recite, clap, smile – our little voices shine!"

Give every student a "Shining Star" sticker for participating.

IV. EVALUATION (Formative)

Use the visual Smile & Shine Checklist to observe:

🗣️ Clear, audible voice

😊 Tone matches the poem's feeling (happy, silly, etc.)

🖐️ Simple gestures/actions to support key words

Observe participation in the warm-up, buddy practice, and showcase.

Check that students listen respectfully to peers.

LESSON PLAN 10: TALK, PLAY & SHARE – LITTLE VOICES

CONNECTING

Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) Strategy

I. OBJECTIVES

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

1. Greet peers and ask simple questions (e.g., "What's your name?" "What do you have?").
2. Share personal information about a favorite toy (e.g., "This is my teddy. He's soft.").
4. Collaborate with a friend to create a short, simple "toy story" using spoken words.
5. Listen respectfully to peers and respond with a simple comment (e.g., "Cool!" "I like it too!").

II. MATERIAL

Stuffed toys or toy pictures (one per student; or let students bring their own favorite toy).

"Talking Flashcards" with simple questions/responses (e.g., 🗨️:

"What's this?" → 🗨️: "It's a...").

A "Chat Box" with small items (toy car, doll, ball) for picking prompts.

Visual "Talk & Connect Checklist" (emojis: 🤝 = greet, ❓ = ask, 💬 = share, 👂 = listen).

"Friendship Sticker" for each student.

III. PROCEDURE

1. Preparatory Activities

A. Warm-Up/Motivation: "Hello, Friend! Circle" (5 minutes)

Gather students in a circle.

The teacher models: "Hi! My name is [Teacher's name]. How are you, [Student's name]?"

Students take turns greeting the friend next to them, using the same pattern. Add a fun twist: they can wave, high-five, or do a silly dance while greeting.

Goal: Practice real, face-to-face interaction and basic greetings.

2. Developmental Activities

Introduction: "Our Toys, Our Stories" (5 minutes)

Hold up a stuffed toy and say: "This is my bunny. Her name is Floppy. She likes to jump!"

Ask: "Who has a toy at home? What's your toy like?" Let 2–3 students share quickly.

3. Analysis/Discussion

Explain: "Today, we'll talk to our friends about our toys—ask them questions, share stories, and play together with words!"

Show the Talk & Connect Checklist and point to each emoji: "These are our super skills for talking today!"

4. Guided Practice

Main Activity: "Chat & Play Stations"

Divide students into 3 small groups. Rotate stations every 5 minutes (keep it fast-paced for little attention spans!).

Station 1: "Toy Show & Tell Chat"

Task: Students take turns showing their toy (or picture) and sharing 1–2 things about it (e.g., "This is my car. It goes 'vroom!'").

Peer Interaction: After each share, friends ask a simple question (using flashcards as a guide): "What color is it?" or "Do you like it?"

Why it's CLT: Real sharing and question-asking about personal things.

Station 2: "Find a Toy Match"

Task: Students walk around the station with their toy/picture. They ask each other: "Do you have a [car/doll/teddy]?"

Goal: Find a friend with the same type of toy. Once they match, they high-five and say: "We both have a [toy]!"

Why it's CLT: Real-world "searching and matching" conversation.

Station 3: "Make a Toy Story Together"

Task: Pairs pick a toy from the Chat Box. They create a 2-sentence story together (e.g., "This is a ball. The ball bounces to the dog!").

Bonus: Add simple actions (bounce like a ball, bark like a dog) while saying the story.

Why it's CLT: Collaborative communication to create something meaningful.

Closure: "Share Our Toy Stories" (5 minutes)

Invite 3–4 pairs to share their short toy story with the class.

After each story, the class responds with a positive comment: "That's funny!" or "I love your ball!" Ask 1–2 students: "What was fun about talking to your friend today?" (e.g., "I found a friend with a teddy too!").

End with a class cheer: "Talk, play, share—we're great at caring and sharing!"

Give every student a "Friendship Sticker" for using their talking skills.

IV. EVALUATION

Use the visual Talk & Connect Checklist to observe:

Greets peers appropriately.

Asks simple questions.

Shares ideas clearly (even if words are simple).

Listens when others talk.

Note how students interact—do they take turns? Do they respond to their friends' words?

No formal testing—focus on participation and effort to communicate.

LESSON PLAN 11: ORAL LANGUAGE – WORD FRIENDS (WORD ASSOCIATION)

I. OBJECTIVE

At the end of the lesson, the pupils are expected to:

1. Think of words that go together (e.g., “cat” → “milk,” “paws,” “meow”).
2. Find 3 ways words connect: same meaning, opposites, or things that go together.
3. Share their word friends and explain why they connect.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Word Friends (How Words Connect)

Materials:

Big pictures (cat, cake, park, sun).

Toy props (toy cat, ball, small umbrella).

Smiley face stickers.

Simple chart with examples:

Same meaning: “happy” → “glad.”

Opposites: “big” → “small.”

Things that go together: “bread” → “butter.”

III. PROCEDURE

1. Warm-Up: “Word Catch!” (5 minutes)

Game: Toss a soft ball.

Teacher says a word (e.g., “red”).

Student catches the ball and says a word friend (e.g., “apple”).

Class claps if it makes sense!

2. Motivation: “Guess My Word Friend!” (5 minutes)

Hold up a toy cat.

Ask: “What words do you think of?”

Meow? Milk? Paws?”

Say: “Today, we’ll play with word friends—words that love to go together!”

3. Activity 1: “Word Friends on the Board” (10 minutes)

Step 1: Stick a picture of a cat on the board.

Ask: “What words go with cat?” Students shout out (e.g., “milk,” “tail”). Add their words with sticky notes.

Step 2: Show how words connect:

“Milk” → goes with cat.

“Small” → opposite of big.

“Happy” → same as glad.

4. Activity 2: “Word Chain Game” (10 minutes)

Groups of 4: Sit in circles.

Teacher gives a starting word (e.g., “sun”).

Each student adds a word friend (e.g., “sun” → “hot” → “ice cream” → “sprinkles”).

Use props (e.g., toy umbrella for “rain”) to help them think!

5. Wrap-Up: “Why Word Friends?” (5 minutes)

Ask:

“Why is ‘cat’ friends with ‘milk’?” (They go together!)

“How do word friends help us talk?” (They make stories fun!)

Sticker Time: Give everyone a smiley sticker for participating!

IV. EVALUATION

Observe:

Did the student share a word friend?

Did they try to explain the connection (even with gestures)?

Symbols:

✿ = Shared 3+ words and explained.

👍 = Shared 1-2 words.

😊 = Tried their best!

V. HOMEWORK

1. Draw & Tell: Draw a cat or sun and tell your family 2-word friends.
2. Bring a Prop: Bring a small toy or picture of their favorite word friend for show-and-tell next class.

TEACHER TIPS

Use actions (e.g., meowing for “cat”) to help explain connections. Keep it silly! If a student says “cat → spaceship,” ask, “Why?” and laugh together.

Sing a goodbye song: “Bye-bye, word friends, see you soon!”

LESSON PLAN 12: ORAL LANGUAGE – FUN WITH TONGUE TWISTERS

I. OBJECTIVE

At the end of the lesson, the pupils are expected to:

1. Say simple tongue twisters clearly, focusing on sounds like /p/, /b/, and /s/.
2. Practice saying tongue twisters slowly, then faster.

II. SUBJECT MATTER

Topic: Tongue Twisters for Clear Speaking

References: Grade 1 Phonics Activities

Materials:

Big posters with 3 tongue twisters (with pictures):

1. “Peter Piper picked pickled peppers.” (Picture: Peter and peppers)
2. “Betty Botter bought butter.” (Picture: Betty and butter)
3. “Six snails slide slowly.” (Picture: snails sliding)

Sound cards with pictures (e.g., popcorn for /p/, ball for /b/, snake for /s/).

“Tongue Twister Stars/Badge” stickers.

Thumbs-up chart for group activities.

III. PROCEDURE

1. Preparatory Activities

A. Warm-Up (5 minutes):

Play “Copy the Sound!”:

Teacher says: “/p/ like popping popcorn!” (Students mimic popping and say /p/).

Repeat with /b/ (bounce like a ball) and /s/ (slither like a snake).

B. Motivation (3 minutes):

Say: “Let’s play with silly sentences that twist our tongues! Who can say ‘Peter Piper’ fast without mixing up words?”

2. Developmental Activities

Introduce Tongue Twisters:

Show the poster and read “Peter Piper” slowly. Clap for each word.

Point to the /p/ sound card every time you say “p.”

Say it faster like a robot! 🤖

Group Practice:

Repeat with “Betty Botter” (/b/ sound) and “Six snails” (/s/ sound).

Students take turns saying one line in pairs.

3. Analysis/Discussion

Ask:

“Why is ‘Peter Piper’ tricky to say?” (They’ll say: “Too many /p/ sounds!”).

“How do tongue twisters help us?” (Answer: “They make our mouths strong for clear talking!”).

4. Guided Practice

Tongue Twister Game:

In small groups, students pick a tongue twister.

Say it slowly, then fast. Friends give a thumbs up if they hear the sounds clearly!

Add fun: Hop or clap while saying it!

IV. EVALUATION

Use a simple checklist:

Give “Tongue Twister Star” stickers to everyone who tries!

Criteria	🌟 (Great!)	👍 (Good!)	😊 (Keep Trying!)
Says sounds clearly
Tries slow and fast
Participates with a smile

V. AGREEMENT

For homework:

1. Practice one tongue twister with your family.
2. Draw a picture of your favorite tongue twister (e.g., Peter Piper or snails).

NOTE FOR TEACHER:

Keep it playful! Praise effort over perfection.

Use lots of movements (clapping, hopping) to make sounds memorable

LESSON 1: TALKING ABOUT ONE'S SELF AND ONE'S FAMILY

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to share organized, detailed information.

1. "Introduce yourself: tell me your name, age, and one thing that makes you happy."
2. "Describe your family—how many members are there, and what does your family like to do together?"
3. "Tell me about a time you had fun with your family."
4. "What is something special about one of your family members?"
5. "Share one thing you love about your home."

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Completeness	Covers self (name, age, likes) +3+family members/details	Covers self +2 family members/details	Covers self + 1 family detail	Only shares 1-2 small facts about self
Clarity	Speech is clear, loud, and easy to understand	Mostly clear with minor pauses	Somewhat unclear or quiet	Hard to understand; mumbles
Organization	Shares info in a logical order (self-first, then family)	Mostly logical order	Somewhat disorganized	No clear order

LESSON 2: FOLLOW ONE-TO-TWO-STEP PHYSICAL DIRECTIONS

(e.g., “Go to the door, close it, and run back here”)

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to follow clear 2-step directions accurately.

1. “Close the door gently, and walk back to your seat.” (2-step)
2. “Open your book to page 5, and put it on your lap.” (2-step)
3. “Jump twice, and sit down quietly.” (2-step)
4. “Draw a circle on the board and return to your seat.” (2-step)
5. “Give one crayon to your seatmate and keep the other.” (2-step)

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Correctness of Steps	Performs all steps exactly as instructed	Performs all steps minor error	Performs 1-2 steps correctly	Performs few or no steps correctly
Order of Steps	Follows the exact order given	Follows order with 1 small mix-up	Mixes up most steps	No sense of order
Timeliness	Completes steps quickly and confidently	Completes steps at steady pace	Takes time to start/finish	Hesitates heavily or refuses to try

LESSON 3: GIVE & FOLLOW ONE-TO-TWO-STEP VERBAL DIRECTIONS

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to give clear 2-step verbal instructions.

“Give at least two instructions”

1. “Ask your younger sister to keep her toys away—say two instructions in one sentence.” (e.g., “Please pick up your toys and put them in the box.”)
2. “Tell your friend how to get a book from the shelf and give it to you—use two instructions.”
3. “What would you say to ask someone to set the table: one instruction for the plate, one for the fork?”
4. “Ask your brother to turn off the TV and come to dinner—say it clearly with two steps.”
5. “Tell me two instructions to ask a classmate to clean up their desk.”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Number of Instructions	Gives 2+ clear, distinct instructions	Gives 2 instructions (1 slightly unclear)	Gives a clear instruction	Gives 0-1 vague/unclear instruction
Clarity & Tone	Language is simple, friendly, and easy for a child to understand	Mostly simple/friendly with minor formality	A bit too complex or stern	Confusing, too formal, or rude
Relevance	Instructions directly relate to “keeping toys away”	Mostly relevant to the task	Slightly off-topic	Unrelated to the task

(color, shape, size, height, weight, length, distance, etc.)

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to use specific describing words.

1. “Describe this teddy bear—tell me its color, size, and how it feels.”
2. “Look at this square book—tell me two more words to describe it (e.g., heavy, thick).”
3. “Describe this small, blue car—use three describing words.”
4. “Look at this long measuring tape—what word tells us how far it stretches?”
5. “Describe your classroom—use two words for its size and one for its color.”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Relevance	All words are exactly describing the item/place/person	Most words are relevant	Some words are relevant	No relevant describing words
Variety	Uses 4+ different types of descriptors (e.g. color + shape +size)	Uses 2-3 different types	Uses 1 type of descriptor	Repeats the same word or uses none
Accuracy	Descriptors are 100% correct	Mostly correct with 1 minor mistake	Partially correct	Mostly incorrect

LESSON 5: TALK ABOUT TOPICS OF INTEREST

(e.g., “Tell me what you think about this picture”)

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to share detailed, organized thoughts.

1. “I’m showing you a picture of a birthday party—tell me what you think about it.”
2. “Tell me about your favorite game—how to play it and why you like it.”
3. “Look at this picture of a rainbow—what do you feel when you see a rainbow? Why?”
4. “What is your favorite subject in school? Explain what you like to do during your class.”
5. “Look at this picture of a forest—what would you explore there and why?”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Relevance	Talks only about details/ideas from the picture	Mostly relevant to the picture	Somewhat off-topic at times	Unrelated to the picture
Depth of thought	Shares 3+ ideas/opinions (e.g., “I like the cat because it’s fluffy”)	Shares 2 ideas/opinions	Shares 1 simple idea/observation	Only says 1-2 words (e.g., “It’s nice”)
Clarity	Speech is clear, with good eye contact	Mostly clear with minor pauses	Somewhat unclear or quiet	Hard to understand

LESSON 6: DESCRIBE AND DRAW

(Show children a picture; they will describe it so someone else can draw it)

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to describe with details so listener can draw accurately.

1. “I’m showing you a picture of a cat sitting on a chair—describe it: color of the cat, shape of the chair, where the cat is sitting.”
2. “Describe this picture of a tree with apples—tell me the tree’s color, how many apples, and if the apples are big or small.”
3. “I’m showing you a picture of a boy playing with a ball—describe the boy’s clothes, the ball’s color, and what he’s doing.”
4. “Describe this picture of a book on a table—tell me the book’s color, the table’s shape, and where the book is on the table.”
5. “I’m showing you a picture of a rainbow over a lake—describe the colors of the rainbow, the lake’s color, and where the rainbow is.”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Detail	Describes 5+ key elements (people, objects, colors)	Describes 3-4 key elements	Describes 1-2 key elements	Describes no key elements
Clarity	Description is so clear, someone could draw it easily	Mostly clear enough to follow	Somewhat confusing	Impossible to understand what’s being described

LESSON 7: USING STORY CHAIN

(Each student has their own story; pair up to tell it in first person, then switch pairs to retell the partner's story)

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to tell own story clearly and retell a partner's story Accurately.

(Setup: Give student a short made-up story to practice first, then pair with a classmate)

1. "Tell your partner your story in first person—speak clearly so they can hear all the details."
2. "Now, retell your partner's story to me—include at least two key details (e.g., who was in it, what happened)."
3. "Tell your story again—make sure to start with 'I' and keep it in order."
4. "Retell your partner's story—use 'he/she/they' when talking about the people in it."
5. "Tell me one key detail from your partner's story that you liked."

LESSON 8: USING PICTURE TALK

Post-Test

1. Tell a short story (2-3 sentences) about the picture.
2. What might happen after the scene in the picture?
3. How would you feel if you were in this picture?

LESSON 9: USING POEMS

Post-Test

1. Recite the entire poem with actions.
2. What is the poem mostly about? (Example: "It's about rain.")
3. Draw a picture of your favorite part of the poem.

LESSON 10: USING TALK, PLAY AND SHARE

Post-Test

1. Create a group story: Each student adds one sentence. (Example: "Once, a dog met a cat...")
2. Act out a problem-solving scenario (e.g., sharing crayons).
3. Ask a friend: "What did you enjoy doing today?"

LESSON 11: USING TONGUE TWISTERS

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to say tongue twisters clearly and with better pace.

1. “Say ‘Red lorry, yellow lorry’ two times in a row—speak clearly, not too fast.”
2. “Say ‘She sells seashells by the seashore’ once—make sure I can hear every word.”
3. “Say ‘Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers’ slowly, then a little faster (still clear!).”
4. “Say ‘Six sick sheep shepherds’ sheep’ two times—don’t mix up the words.”
5. “Say ‘How much wood would a woodchuck chuck?’ once—speak with a steady pace.”

Criteria	Excellent (4pts)	Good (3pts)	Satisfactory (2pts)	Needs Improvement (1pt)
Pronunciation	Pronounces all words correctly (even at speed)	Most correct pronunciation	Some mispronunciations but still clear	Many mispronunciations; hard to follow
Fluency	Says the tongue twister smoothly 2+ times	Says it smoothly once, with 1 pause	Says it with 2- 3 pauses	Stumbles heavily or can’t finish
Effort & Confidence	Tries enthusiastically, speaks loudly	Tries willingly, mostly loud	Tries but is quiet/hesitant	Reluctant to try or gives up

LESSON 12: USING WORD ASSOCIATION

POST-TEST (5 items)

Assesses ability to think of multiple related words and explain connections

1. “I say ‘dog’—tell me two words related to ‘dog’ and explain why (e.g., ‘bone’ because dogs like bones).”
2. “I say ‘school’—tell me three words that go with ‘school’.”
3. “I say ‘rain’—tell me two words related to ‘rain’ and say what they have to do with rain.”
4. “I say ‘toy’—tell me three words that make you think of ‘toy’.”
5. “I say ‘food’—tell me two words related to ‘food’ and explain why.”
